The Alliance System

Many countries had made alliances with one other. They agreed to protect each other. If one was attacked, the others would defend them. The war was fought between:

- Central Powers: Germany, Austria-Hungary and their allies.
- The Triple Entente: Great Britain, France and Russia.

Important People

Archduke Franz Ferdinand

Prince of Austria-Hungary and heir to the throne. Assassinated by a Bosnian man called Gavrilo Princip in 1914.

Walter Tull

Northampton Town footballer who joined the British army and served in two Football Battalions.

Remembrance Day

Every year on 11 November, people in the UK stop for a short moment of reflection. Poppies, which grew on the barren fields of World War One, are used to remember soldiers who died.

Trench Warfare

Many battles were fought using trench warfare.

Long ditches were dug in the ground. Soldiers lived in the trenches and sometimes climbed out to attack. A famous example of trench war was the Battle of the Somme which started in July 1916.
